Grand Prize: $750 ★ First: $500 ★ Second: $300 ★ Third: $200 ★ (5) People's Choice: Ribbon

Official Rules for 2026 Competition

- Anyone may enter the contest.
- You may submit as many entries as you wish, but only the entry with the highest judged score will be eligible. Each entry must be accompanied by its own entry blank and fee.
- The entry fee is $25 (US Dollars), for each cartoon entered. Please make checks, money orders or bank drafts to: "Homer Davenport Community Festival." (Include an entry form for each.)
- Entry deadline: All entries and fees must be received by 5:00 pm Friday, July 31, 2026. (Official entry forms on the back.)
- Your entry must be original and unpublished. (Good copies of the original are acceptable.)
- You may pick up your entry after the contest is over. (Include a SASE with sufficient postage if you would like us to mail your entry back to you.)
- Maximum Size: 8 1/2" by 11"; (21.59 x 27.94 cm), either horizontal or vertical format.
- Subject: Contemporary political, economic and social ideas of interest; an "Editorial Cartoon."
- Libelous, slanderous, racist, sexist or salacious entries will not be accepted.
- All copyrights remain with the artist, while HDCF retains publication rights for future cartoon contest anthologies.

Judging and Exhibition: The work will be judged in three categories: Artistic skill, Clearly implied message, and the Cartoon's over all appeal. All prizes will be determined by a blue ribbon panel of judges, with five special "Peoples Choice" awards determined by popular vote. Winners will be announced Saturday afternoon at the festival, and announced online at the "Homer Page." Entries will be prominently displayed in Silverton during the Homer Days, (August 7 through 9, 2026) and online.

\ Note: Entries without an entry fee may be displayed, but will not be judged or be eligible for a prize.*
